3.1 The kinds of SEND that are provided for

Our school currently provides additional and/or different provision for a range of needs, including:

- Communication and interaction, for example, autistic spectrum condition, and speech and language difficulties
- Cognition and learning, for example, dyslexia, dyscalculia
- Social and emotional and mental health difficulties, for example, ADHD, anxiety, trauma-related difficulties
- Sensory and/or physical needs, for example, visual impairments, hearing impairments, processing difficulties, epilepsy
- Moderate and multiple learning difficulties

3.2 Identifying pupils with SEND and assessing their needs

At Histon and Impington Brook Primary School, we follow a graduated approach

We will assess each pupil's current skills and levels of attainment on entry, which will build on previous settings and Key Stages, where appropriate. Class teachers will make regular assessments of progress for all pupils and identify those whose progress:

- is significantly slower than that of their peers starting from the same baseline
- fails to match or better the child's previous rate of progress
- fails to close the attainment gap between the child and their peers
- widens the attainment gap

This may include progress in areas other than attainment, for example, social needs.

Slow progress and low attainment will not automatically mean a pupil is recorded as having SEND.

When deciding whether special educational provision is required, we will start with the desired outcomes, including the expected progress and attainment, and the views and the wishes of the pupil and their parents. We will use this to determine the support that is needed and whether we can provide it by adapting our core offer, or whether something different or additional is needed.

5.3 Consulting and involving pupils and parents

We will have an early discussion with the pupil and their parents when identifying whether they need special educational provision. These conversations will make sure that:

- Everyone develops a good understanding of the pupil's areas of strength and difficulty
- We take into account the parents' concerns
- Everyone understands the agreed outcomes sought for the child

- Everyone is clear on what the next steps are

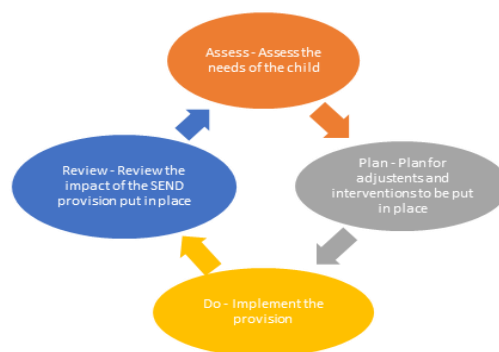

Notes of these early discussions will be added to the pupil's record.

We will notify parents when it is decided that a pupil will receive SEND support and this support will be formalised with the introduction of an Action Plan. Parents are invited to work collaboratively with the school team in order to devise an appropriate and cohesive plan.

The child's name will then be added to a confidential record of pupils with SEND in our school. We are required to report this on the school census. Some children benefit from having an Action Plan without being formally on the SEND register.

5.4 Assessing and reviewing pupils' progress towards outcomes

We will follow the graduated approach and the four-part cycle of assess, plan, do, review.

The class teacher and supporting adults will work with the SENDCo to carry out a clear analysis of the pupil's needs. This will draw on:

- The teacher's assessment and experience of the pupil
- Their previous progress and attainment and behaviour
- Other teachers' assessments, where relevant
- The individual's development in comparison to their peers and national data
- The views and experience of parents
- The pupil's own views
- Advice from external support services, if relevant

The assessment will be reviewed regularly.

All teachers and support staff who work with the pupil will be made aware of their needs, the outcomes sought, the support provided, and any teaching strategies or approaches that are required. We will regularly review the effectiveness of the support and interventions and their impact on the pupil's progress.

5.5 Supporting pupils moving between phases and preparing for adulthood

We will share information with the school, college, or other setting the pupil is moving to. We will agree with parents and pupils which information will be shared as part of this. All pupils will be offered induction sessions in new school settings where this is offered. Additional introductory inductions sessions will be arranged as necessary for pupils with SEND. The SENDCo of the intended transition setting may be invited to the Transition Annual Review where an EHCP is in place and the transition setting has been decided.

5.6 Our approach to teaching pupils with SEND

Teachers are responsible and accountable for the progress and development of all the pupils in their class.

High quality teaching is our first step in responding to pupils who have SEND. This will be differentiated for individual pupils.

We also offer a range of needs-led intervention groups. These may be adapted to meet the differing needs of individuals or groups, including children with identified SEND. The following are examples of targeted interventions used in our school:

- Speech and Language interventions to build vocabulary and language structures (eg Colourful Semantics)
- Little Wandle Phonics Reading Groups
- Rapid Catch Up (phonics reading)
- Keep Up (phonics)
- First Class @ number
- Number Stacks
- Expanded Rehearsal Technique (ERT)
- Tier 3 Dyslexia intervention
- Booster Interventions for Maths and Literacy
- Drawing and Talking Therapy
- Blue Smile Therapy
- Sensory Circuits
- Use of Social Stories
- Social groups
- Zones of Regulation

Where children have an identified SEN, their provision will be detailed in an Action Plan which will include any input from external agencies.

5.7 Adaptations to the curriculum and learning environment

We make the following adaptations to ensure all pupils' needs are met:

- Adapting our curriculum to ensure all pupils are able to access it, for example, by grouping, 1:1 work, teaching style, content of the lesson, etc.
- Adapting our resources and staffing
- Using recommended aids, such as laptops, coloured overlays, visual timetables, larger font, etc.
- Making reasonable adjustments to our teaching to meet individual needs, for example, giving longer processing times, pre-teaching of key vocabulary, reading instructions aloud, etc.

5.8 Additional support for learning

Teachers provide additional targeted support and will plan for supplementary interventions.

Teaching assistants will support pupils in small groups when pupils require support with identified areas of the curriculum to accelerate progress and embed key skills and core knowledge.

Teaching assistants are trained to deliver the interventions that apply to their Phase, Class or individual children with whom they work.

Teaching assistants will support pupils on a 1:1 basis when there are identified special needs which require targeted support. This includes children with an EHCP.

Other agencies are also included in providing additional support for learning where necessary to best meet pupil needs

5.9 Expertise and training of staff

Our SENDCo has 7 years' experience as a SENDCo working a number of different schools. She has worked as a primary school teacher for over 15 years. Many SEN courses have been attended over the years, and Network meetings and conferences are attended on a regular basis.

The SENDCo manages a team of the SENDCo Assistant and teaching assistants who are trained to deliver SEND provision. The SENDCo is also able to call upon the expertise and advice of a team of other SENDCos working in schools across the Meridian Trust as well as the local authority.

In the last two academic years, staff working with children with SEN have been trained in a number of areas including: Little Wandle Phonics, Clicker Software to support Literacy, Tier 3 Dyslexia intervention programme, Colourful Semantics, Safeguarding, Therapeutic Thinking, Thrive, GDPR, Autism and using the 5 Point Scale, as well as in-house training for interventions and assessments.

Teaching Assistants receive regular training (both internal and externally) appropriate to the needs of children they support.

Specialist staff train and oversee certain interventions as needed e.g. Speech Therapy.

5.10 Securing equipment and facilities

Equipment is regularly catalogued and audited to ensure security and user-relevance. Personal equipment relating to Special Educational Needs are kept securely in compliance with the school's GDPR policy which can be found on the school website or by request. Information is shared and kept only according to GDPR regulations. All SEND equipment is kept securely onsite.

5.11 Evaluating the effectiveness of SEND provision

We evaluate the effectiveness of provision for pupils with SEND by:

- Reviewing pupils' individual progress towards their goals each term alongside pupils and parents/carers
- Reviewing the impact of interventions regularly
- Using pupil questionnaires
- Annual parent questionnaires
- Annual staff surveys
- Monitoring by the SENDCo
- Holding annual reviews for pupils with EHCP plans
- Quality Assurance Monitoring through the Meridian Trust SEND Team

5.12 Enabling pupils with SEND to engage in activities available to those in the school who do not have SEND

All of the extra-curricular activities run by the school, and school visits are available to all our pupils, including our before-and after-school clubs.

All pupils are encouraged to take part in sports day/school plays/special workshops, etc. Where a child has SEND, this will be taken into account when planning activities and making arrangements. Every effort will be made to provide support to enable all pupils to access these fully.

No pupil is ever excluded from taking part in these activities because of their SEND or disability.

Admission of disabled pupils is accompanied by a transition meeting in which pupil needs are discussed and planned for. Specialist advice and guidance on the reasonable adjustments that can be made will be sought to ensure the best possible provision. The school's aim is that disabled pupils access all aspects of school life as fully as possible and we are committed to ensuring that disabled pupils are not treated less favourably than other pupils. Physical disabilities will be supported by reasonable adjustments to the internal and external environment and appropriate additional support provided where required. Other disabilities will be similarly assessed and provided for on an individual basis, with reference to individuals' level and type of need.

More detail are in our Accessibility plan which can be found on our website.

We provide support for pupils to improve their emotional and social development in the following ways:

- All pupils, including those with SEND are encouraged to be part of the school council
- Pupils with SEND are also encouraged to be part of school clubs to promote teamwork/building friendships etc.
- Extra support at lunchtime is available to support children's play.

We have a zero tolerance approach to bullying and a clear procedure for identifying and responding to bullying-related incidents.

The Head teacher, Safeguarding DP and SENDCo are responsible for ensuring active involvement of external agencies where this is deemed to be in the best interests of a pupil.
