BTEC Registration, entry & certification process

Aims

1. To register individual learners to the correct programme within agreed timescales.
2. To enter individual learners for assessment, where required, by published deadlines.
3. To claim valid learner certificates within agreed timescales.
4. To construct a secure, accurate and accessible audit trail to ensure that individual learner registration, entries and certification claims can be tracked to the certificate which is issued for each learner.

To do this, Meridian Trust schools will:

Register each learner to meet with Pearson requirements • Register each learner on the appropriate programme code, at the start of teaching and prior to any assessment activity • Provide a mechanism for programme teams to check the accuracy of learner registrations • Make each learner aware of their registration status • Inform the awarding body of withdrawals, transfers, or changes to learner details • Ensure registration data on Edexcel Online is accurate and up to date, including learner 'estimated completion dates' • Ensure learner entries for internal and/or external assessment are accurate and timely, meeting published deadlines • Provide a mechanism for programme leads to check the accuracy of individual learner entries • Ensure that certificate claims are timely to meet Pearson published deadlines • Audit certificate claims made to Pearson • Audit the certificates received from Pearson, to ensure accuracy • Keep all records safely and securely for three years post certification, in line with Pearson Terms and Conditions.

- For Centre specific procedures see the 25 – 26 Examination Policy

BTEC Appeals

Aims

1. To enable the learner to enquire, question or appeal against an assessment decision
2. To attempt to reach agreement between the learner and the assessor at the earliest opportunity
3. To standardise and record any appeal to ensure openness and fairness
4. To facilitate a learner's ultimate right of appeal to the Pearson and the Office of the Independent Adjudicator (BTEC Level 4-Level 7 only), where appropriate
5. To protect the interests of all learners and the integrity of the qualification

To do this, Meridian Trust schools will:

- Inform the learner at induction, of the Appeals Policy and procedure

BTEC Assessment Malpractice

Aims • To identify and minimise the risk of malpractice by staff or learners

- To respond to any incident of alleged malpractice promptly and objectively
- To standardise and record any investigation of malpractice to ensure openness and fairness
- To report all alleged, suspected, and actual incidents of malpractice to Pearson
- To protect the integrity of this centre and BTEC qualifications

To do this, Meridian Trust schools will: • Foster a culture in which all learners and staff feel able to report any concerns of wrongdoing by anyone • Seek to prevent malpractice by using the induction period and the learner handbook to inform learners of the centre's policy on malpractice and the sanctions for attempted and actual incidents of malpractice • Show learners the appropriate formats to record cited texts and other materials or information sources • Require learners to declare that their work is their own • Ask learners to provide evidence that they have interpreted and synthesised appropriate information and acknowledged any sources used • Advise learners of the centre's rules regarding whether AI tools (e.g., ChatGPT) can be used and, if so, • Require learners to acknowledge the use of artificial intelligence (AI) sources and provide copies of any interactions with AI tools made in the production of their work • Report to Pearson all alleged, suspected and actual incidents of malpractice in accordance with JCQ Suspected Malpractice Policies and Procedures (add link) • Where required, gather information for an investigation in accordance with Pearson instructions. Such an investigation will be supported by the Head of Centre / Principal / CEO and all personnel linked to the allegation. Where malpractice is proven, Pearson will determine the sanctions to be imposed.

Learner Malpractice This list of examples is not exhaustive: • Plagiarism of any nature, including the misuse of AI tools. Collusion by working collaboratively with other learners to produce work that is submitted as individual learner work •

Copying (including the use of ICT to aid copying) • Deliberate destruction of another's work • Fabrication of results or evidence • False declaration of authenticity in relation to the contents of a portfolio or coursework • Impersonation, by pretending to be someone else to produce the work for another or arranging for another to take one's place in an assessment/examination/test.

Staff Malpractice This list of examples is not exhaustive: • Improper assistance to learners • Inventing or changing marks for internally assessed work (coursework or portfolio evidence) where there is insufficient evidence of the learners' achievement to justify the marks given or assessment decisions made • Failure to keep learner coursework/portfolios of evidence secure • Assisting learners in the production of work for assessment, where the support has the potential to influence the outcomes of assessment, for example where the assistance involves centre staff producing work for the learner • Producing falsified witness statements, for example for evidence the learner has not generated • Allowing evidence, which is known by the staff member not to be the learner's own, to be included in a learner's assignment/task/portfolio/coursework • Facilitating and allowing impersonation • Failing to provide reasonable adjustments where these have been approved, such as having a scribe or reader • Falsifying records/certificates, for example by alteration, substitution, or fabrication • Improper certificate claims, e.g., claiming for a certificate prior to the learner completing all the requirements of assessment.

Artificial Intelligence

While the potential for student artificial intelligence (AI) misuse is new, most of the ways to prevent its misuse and mitigate the associated risks are not; the Trust has established measures to ensure students are aware of the importance of submitting their own independent work for assessment and for identifying potential malpractice.

Centre guidance for dealing with malpractice and maladministration

The Trust emphasises the following requirements:

- As has always been the case, and in accordance with BTEC Malpractice and maladministration Policy and Procedures, teachers and assessors must only accept work for qualification assessments which is the students' own;
- Students who misuse AI such that the work they submit for assessment is not their own will have committed malpractice, in accordance with ASDAN regulations, and may attract severe sanctions;
- Students and centre staff must be aware of the risks of using AI and must be clear on what constitutes malpractice;

- Students must make sure that work submitted for assessment is demonstrably their own. If any sections of their work are reproduced directly from AI generated responses, those elements must be identified by the student and they must understand that this will not allow them to demonstrate that they have independently met the marking criteria and therefore will not be rewarded as per page 6 and 7 (2.1 Artificial Intelligence)
- Where teachers have doubts about the authenticity of student work submitted for assessment (for example, they suspect that parts of it have been generated by AI but this has not been acknowledged), they must investigate and take appropriate action.

The awarding organisations' staff, examiners and moderators have established procedures for identifying, reporting and investigating student malpractice, including the misuse of AI. Centres must submit the full details of the case at the earliest opportunity, using the Notification of malpractice or maladministration form. Should AI generated evidence be presented by a candidate for external moderation for any reason, the assessor is to note this on the candidate's assessment checklist and provide the rationale behind the decision to include the evidence.

Candidate malpractice

If you discover any irregularity in the internally assessed elements of qualifications before a learner has signed the declaration of authentication, you don't need to report this to us. Instead, you should follow your centre's academic misconduct/malpractice policy in resolving the matter.

If you discover an irregularity after a candidate has signed the declaration of authentication, or you suspect any malpractice by a candidate during an external assessment, you must submit full details of the case to us at the earliest opportunity by emailing a JCQ Form M1 with supporting documentation to candidatemalpractice@pearson.com.

Staff malpractice

If you suspect that a member of staff has committed malpractice or that maladministration of the qualification may have occurred, you must let us know by emailing a completed JCQ M2 Form to pqsmalpractice@pearson.com.

Our Investigations team will review the documentation that you provide and advise you on the next steps.

BTEC Special consideration and reasonable adjustments - new

Aims

1. To make reasonable adjustments where a disabled person would be at a substantial disadvantage in undertaking an assessment.

2. To ensure any Special Consideration adjustment to a candidate's mark or grade to reflect temporary injury, illness, or other indisposition at the time of the examination/assessment is submitted appropriately and timely.

3. To ensure that learners are not unfairly disadvantaged/advantaged during the assessment process

To do this, Meridian Trust schools will

Reasonable adjustments • Ensure any reasonable adjustment during an assessment reflects the normal learning or working practice of a learner in the centre or working in an occupational area • Only use mechanical, electronic, and other aids to demonstrate competence that are generally commercially available or available from a specialist supplier • Ensure any adaptations do not impact on any assessment standards or competence standards being assessed • Only use adaptations that are recognised in current JCQ guidance and contact Pearson for further guidance, if appropriate • Consider any reasonable adjustment on a case-by-case basis • Provide evidence of need if requested by Pearson • Inform the learner where a reasonable adjustment application has been submitted to Pearson • Record all reasonable adjustments made in relation to internal assessments on Form VQ/IA and make available to Pearson on request • Apply for reasonable adjustments to external assessments in line with deadlines published by Pearson. Special Considerations • Apply for any special consideration at the time of the assessment and in line with deadlines published by Pearson • Only apply for a special consideration if the situation meets current JCQ guidance.
